Because no child should be bought or sold for sex.

OUR COMMITMENT TO OUR SPONSORS

StolenYouth's annual Not On Our Watch Luncheon is one of Seattle's most inspiring and successful fundraisers. This one-hour event is geared toward educating the community about local child sex trafficking, galvanizing them to stand up and say, "Not on our watch, and not in our state." Now in its eighth year, StolenYouth has raised over $7 million to fight the sexual exploitation of children and youth and expand critical services for trafficking survivors.

Our vision is to end child sex trafficking in Washington state. Our coalition model unites direct services, policy development, advocacy, education, and community awareness initiatives to disrupt the entire system of exploitation. We believe these children and youth are victims who deserve compassion, access to services, and a way out.

StolenYouth supports a coalition of nonprofit, 501(c)(3) organizations. Each targets a different, but vital, aspect of combatting child sex trafficking- from prevention and demand reduction to survivor support services. Together, these organizations create a holistic approach to ending this abuse.

We are deeply grateful for our partnerships with major corporate and individual donors. We promise to serve as good stewards of your generous investment and to ensure that it is a mutually beneficial partnership. Whether you are a returning sponsor or a first time partner, we value your commitment and support. We will make every effort to meet your specific marketing objectives to enhance your Not On Our Watch Sponsorship.

EVENT OVERVIEW

The purpose of the luncheon is threefold.

First, to shine a light on the plight of the hundreds of trafficked youth in our community.

Second, to demonstrate how we each have the power to affect real and lasting change on this issue. We know that it is impossible to look away after learning of the exploitation of our most vulnerable youth.

Finally, we invite our guests to stand with us as part of the solution, saying “Not On Our Watch, Not In Our State.”

The Not On Our Watch rallying cry embodies the spirit of our work: Channeling our outrage into collaboration and action to make real change.

Our activities include funding life-saving services, emergency housing, community advocates, innovative technologies, prevention training, groundbreaking research, and bringing this issue to the forefront of the community’s consciousness.

YOUR SPONSORSHIP AT A GLANCE

By sponsoring our luncheon, you receive exposure and access to a high-profile event and an audience of hundreds of influential supporters, including prominent philanthropists, corporate leaders, and elected officials.

We rely on generous sponsorships to underwrite the cost of the event, ensuring that every dollar raised is used to disrupt the ever-changing marketplace where children are bought and sold for sex.

We offer many sponsorship levels: Founding, Lead, Sustaining, Partner and Table. We also welcome in-kind donations of print services, accommodations for speakers, centerpiece items, and more.

Packages have been developed to maximize exposure for our sponsors, however, we are more than happy to tailor any package to suit your needs. Whichever level you choose, we are deeply appreciative of your partnership and thank you for being part of the solution.

Did you know that more than 600 children and youth are bought and sold for sex every year? Trafficked youth are vulnerable, traumatized, and often hidden in the shadows with no way out.

WHAT OUR PARTNERS SAY

“ The work at the King County Prosecutor’s Office in combatting child sex trafficking and the sex buyers that fuel its demand would not succeed without StolenYouth’s work in our community. StolenYouth empowers its coalition of partners to provide effective solutions to this devastating problem of exploitation, which the criminal justice system cannot solve on its own. Whether it’s helping provide the tools to identify trafficked children and then connecting these kids with resources and hope or helping provide the programs that allow men to learn about the harms inherent in their decisions to buy sex, StolenYouth is addressing the root causes of child sex trafficking. StolenYouth is truly an indispensable partner. ”

- Ben Gauen, Senior Deputy Prosecuting Attorney, King County Prosecuting Attorney’s Office

“ Men buying sex from kids in Washington State is an outrage, and it cannot be stopped without StolenYouth’s commitment to addressing the root causes of sexual exploitation. Their support has enabled Seattle Against Slavery to educate hundreds of former sex buyers, stopping sex buying throughout our community. StolenYouth’s leadership and generous partnerships have provided the essential resources to push our movement forward toward healthier communities where nobody is exploited. ”

- Eli Zucker, Men’s Accountability Director at Seattle Against Slavery
